Do you sell online? If so, how do people find you? We will link to your Etsy shop, Webpage or Facebook page if you'd like, and you can start selling even before the show! _____

Please indicate if it's okay to email you regarding the show ___Okay to email ___No email.

We will be communicating mainly via email and Facebook prior to the event, and want to help promote your crafts before the show to get even more buyers!

What brands/lines/products will you be selling? _____

This is a family friendly festival, so we do not allow any products or services that are promoting smoking, vaping, alcohol, marijuana, sex, or gambling in the craft or vendor areas. Food products must be legal through the laws of the Michigan Department of Agriculture. No used merchandise or flea market type products can be sold at the show.

Vendors of national companies and non-handmade items will be setup along the south sidewalks of M-46. You will be able to drive right up to your spot to setup, then can park your vehicle in designated areas. Vendors are welcome to stay as late as you want on June 23rd.

The Car Show will be right across the road on the courthouse lawn and the parade is right along M-46, so you will have lots of traffic!

Set up begins at 7:30am with complete set up by 10am on Saturday, June 23rd. You can drive right up to your booth to unpack. Full setup details will be sent to you via email after applications are received.
